

RCCS Graduate Profile (Our 'Z')

Integral, Quality Education

Are well prepared in all academic disciplines, & skilled in reading, writing, speaking, listening and thinking.

Have a knowledge & understanding of people, events, and movements in history (including church history).

Have a critical appreciation of languages & cultures.

Know how to utilize resources, including technology, to find, analyze and evaluate information.

Appreciate literature and the arts and understand how they express and shape their beliefs and values.

Are committed to life-long learning, and have the skills to question, solve problems, and make wise decisions.

Are prepared to practice the principles of healthy, moral family living.

Are good stewards of their finances, time, body, and all other resources.

Lifestyle of Integrity

Understand, value, & engage in appropriate social (community) and civic (political) activities.

Formation in Faith

Understand & commit to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Know, understand, and apply God's Word in daily life.

Are empowered by the Holy Spirit and pursue a life of faith, goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness and love.

Can articulate & defend their Christian worldview while having an understanding of opposing worldviews.

Personally respond to carrying out the Great Commission locally & around the world in a culturally sensitive manner.

Are actively involved in a church community, serving God and others.

Understand the worth of every human being as created in the image of God.